

SENECA ALLEGANY RESORT & CASINO

For a resort escape filled with hot entertainment and cool relaxation, visit Seneca Allegany Resort & Casino – the premier resort in New York’s Southern Tier region. Nestled at the foot of the majestic Allegheny Mountains along the New York/Pennsylvania border, Seneca Allegany Resort & Casino is a short drive from Buffalo, Rochester, Pittsburgh, Cleveland and Southern Ontario.

It’s always time to play at Seneca Allegany, home to 1,800 state-of-the-art slot machines, including classic favorites and the latest technology and themes, and 33 table games, such as blackjack, roulette, craps, Caribbean Stud poker, and many more. Our newly-redesigned 68,000-square-foot casino floor, not only lets you enjoy all of your favorite games, but also offers you a level of comfort you won’t find anywhere else.

If relaxation is the goal, nobody does it better than Seneca Allegany. The area’s only AAA Four Diamond Award-winning resort features 413 luxurious hotel rooms, each with picturesque mountain views, complete with upscale amenities including a pillow-top bed, oversized shower, flat-screen television, and free wireless Internet access. For a little pampering, enjoy a full range of services in our Spa and Salon, where you can enjoy a massage, body wrap, facial, manicure, and pedicure, or take on a fresh new look with our professional stylists. Just down the hall, take a refreshing dip in the indoor pool and steamy whirlpool, or get your heart pumping inside the resort’s fitness facility.

Speaking of heart-pounding excitement, Seneca Allegany is the place to be for top-notch entertainment. Inside the 2,400-seat Seneca Allegany Events Center, no seat is further than 100 feet from the stage, and two oversized high-definition video screens make every seat feel like the “best seat in the house.” The long list of entertainers who have performed at Seneca Allegany include Brian Wilson, John Legend, Martina McBride, Tragically Hip, Howie Mandel, Lynyrd Skynyrd, and many more.

With so much to do, it’s easy to work up an appetite. Seneca Allegany Resort & Casino’s mix of fine dining and casual restaurant options offer something for everyone. A culinary gem awaits at The Western Door, Western New York’s premier steakhouse, where you can savor the finest steaks and chops, and the freshest seafood. Patria boasts authentic Italian cooking with food prepared from scratch and more than 120 wines from around the world. Thunder Mountain Buffet features a delicious array of all-you-can-eat options including prime rib, shrimp, rotisserie chicken and more. Fire Lounge serves up unique cocktails and appetizers. At the 24-hour Seneca Café, you’ll find something for every crowd, from the early risers to the night owls. Visit the brand new River Bar to hear live music just steps from the excitement of the gaming floor.

The resort’s location provides many opportunities to enjoy the outdoors all year round. Play a round of golf, ski or seek thrills in nearby Ellicottville, go hiking, camping, or snowmobiling in scenic Allegany State Park, or enjoy nearby horseback riding, fishing, boating and other activities.

Seneca Allegany Resort & Casino is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week and 365 days a year. Come see and experience what more than 3 million annual visitors already know – your perfect getaway awaits at Seneca Allegany Resort & Casino. For more information, visit www.SenecaAlleganyCasino.com.
